

TACSC Curriculum Pillars

Through the TACSC experience all participants will grow and develop independently as.....

Servant Leaders:

- Who uses God's gifts to affects change.
- Who has an active multi-faceted prayer life
- Who is an accepting, respectful and thoughtful citizen
- Who is an involved member of their school, church and global communities

Effective Communicator:

- Who speaks and writes effectively for a variety of audiences
- Who is a respectful, active listener that can respond or build on ideas
- Who uses technology responsibly and innovatively
- Who understands and demonstrates nonverbal skills through poise, confidence and appearance

Strategic Real World Planners:

- Who has the ability to set goals, design and manage projects
- Who collaborates, thinks interdependently and builds consensus
- Who is a flexible thinker
- Who is can identify a problem, evaluate solutions and resolve conflicts

Life Long Mentors:

- Who understands that their actions have impact and consequences
- Who applies learned skills in their school and daily life
- Who reciprocates by guiding others to discover their leadership potential
- Who fosters curiosity, humor, passion and a love of learning